Theft of Horse. A horse and carriage were stolen from Mr. Wilkinson of Ridgeheld, Friday.

Suicide In Greenwich.

John Eueen, Greenwich manager for the Standard Oil Company, com-mitted suicide Friday, by ahooting himself through the temple. It is supposed that the act was due to des-pondency over a supposed shortage in his accounts amounting to $500. Both Legs Broken.

Thomas Crawford, of Darien, went

Thomas Crawford, of Darien, went through a most excruciating experience from. Tuesday afternoon until Wednesday morning, when he was found in his greenhouse with bones in both legs tractured. While working Tuesday afternoon, Mr. Crawford fell, sustaining the serious injury and was unable to rouse help. He was not missed at his home as it is frequently his custom to take food and spend a day or two at the greenhouse during cold deather.

He Inhaled Gas.

James Murphy, formerly an inmate of the Soldier's Home, in Noroton, who is thought to have been about eighty years of age, died Friday evenings in the Belmont Hotel, South Norwalk, as a result of inhaling gas, which escaped from a partially opened gascock. He was feeble and seemed to be partially paralyzed in his legs, from the knee down. The theory of the doctors is that he arcose early Friday morning, not knowing what time it was and did not notice until he had dressed. After ascertaining the hour, he probably attempted to turn out the gas to take another map. It is believed that he either failed to turn out the gas to take another map. It is believed that he either failed to turn out the gas to take another map. It is believed that he either failed to turn the gas-cock entirely off, or he struck it after he had turned it off, opening it just enough to let some escape, for the cock turned very Destroyed By Eire.

The large farm house on Hilltop farm, Clapboard Ridge, was burned to the ground Thursday afternoon. It was occupied by Samuel Gage, and owned by the Union Savings bank. The family were away when the fire started, and the cause is not known. Loss $3,000.

Killed By a Horse. Conrad Rohr lies in a critical condition at the Stamford Hospital, with a fractured skull, as a result of a blow from a horse's hoof, early Friday morning. Rohr was collecting ashes with a horse and cart, assisted by James Palisto. The victics of the control of by James Palisto. The victim was bolding the animal by the bridle, as Palisto loaded an ash-can into the cart, when it suddenly made a wild dash forward. They are demonstrating their best coffee, which is sold at a very reasonable figure and invite the public to call and have a cup. Here is your opportunity while doing your Christmas shopping. Their store is also headquarters for the best of butter, fresh eggs, etc.—Adv. Demonstration All This Week.

Killed By Fall.

Charles Barker, a roofer, was killed almost instantly at Stamford, Saturday. He fell from the roof of a building. He fell upon a pile of slate, fracturing his skull.

Clothing Burned Off.

Mrs. Albin Sims, a woman of seventy years, had almost all her clothes burned off Thursday morning, at New Canaan. Mrs. Sims' chances of recovery are considered very slim. While Mrs. Sims was attending to her kitchen stove, a red-hot coal chanced to fall into her apron. She didn't notice the coal until her dress was The Last Call. to fall into her apron. She didn't notice the coal until her dress was all in flames. Mr. Sims used rugs and water to extinguish the flames, but, before he succeeded, not only had his hands severely burned, but all of the clothes had been burned from Mrs. Sims.
